

Please keep Wisconsin's Do Not Call laws intact. As consumers, if we have cancelled a service with a company, we have done so for our own personal and valid reasons and do not deserve to be bothered to return to that company/service provider. Let us make our own decisions free of pressure or harassment in the privacy of our own homes during our precious free time.